2023 DIAMONDS DO GOOD SCHOLARSHIPS

The Diamonds Do Good fund was established in 2008 to assist youth in the diamond mining communities of the world. This fund is now available to youth living in the Northwest Territories through Diamonds Do Good Scholarships.

The Diamonds Do Good Scholarships give back to the communities that are near diamond mines. The goal of the scholarships is to assist youth, 18-30 years of age in the Northwest Territories who are seeking additional training and/or education that is needed in their community.

Five Diamonds Do Good Scholarships will be granted this year in the following fields:

- Vocational Training (One Scholarship)
- Entrepreneurial Training for Setting Up Businesses (One Scholarship)
- Post-Secondary Education, with emphasis on STEM (Three Scholarships)

Each scholarship is $5,000.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Be a resident of the Northwest Territories.
- Be between the ages of 18 to 30 at the time of application.
- Have been accepted into a vocational, entrepreneurial, or post-secondary education program.
- Submit a completed application form accompanied by:
  - An essay (not less than 250 words) describing what winning the Diamonds Do Good scholarship means to you, your need for a scholarship, and how your training or education will benefit your community.
  - A detailed budget outlining how the $5,000 would be spent
  - Two (2) Reference Letters
  - Two or three photos of you that could be used for promoting the scholarship program
  - A letter of acceptance to a vocational, entrepreneurial, or post-secondary education program
  - Transcripts
  - Signed Media Consent Form

Application Deadline

June 30, 2023

Selection Process

Applications will be reviewed by the Scholarship Committee comprised of Diamonds Do Good and Mine Training Society representatives.

Scholarships will be awarded in July 2023.
